

Nautilus SCUBA Club Inc.

Club Rules

The Club aims to promote safe, enjoyable diving for members and to achieve these objectives members need to comply with the following Rules:

- Members must be certified divers to participate in scuba diving on Club trips. C Cards are to be presented to the dive operator on the day of the Club event
 - Each member is responsible for ensuring he/she has the experience and qualifications required for specific dives. If the Dive Operator or organizer sets specific criteria this will be advertised with the dive information
 - All club members are to respect and follow the requirements of the Dive Operator when on their vessel, including qualifications, dive instructions and equipment and the use of the vessel.
 - The Club Committee has the power to refuse membership if the behaviour of the person concerned is considered inappropriate, unsafe or detrimental to the Club
 - Current membership is required to enjoy the benefits of the Club. Discounts are only available to financial members.
-

These rules are to remain in force until otherwise determined by the Nautilus Scuba Club Committee

- ORIGINALLY ADOPTED: 14/09/2011
- LAST REVIEWED: 09/07/2014